

Scripture reference: Operation "No More Tears!": Isaiah's Prophecy

Story summary: God gives Isaiah a special message. The special message was that God wanted his people to know about his rescue plan and our Rescuer, Jesus. God told Isaiah his plan and Isaiah told it to the people. Unfortunately, though, not everybody believed that what Isaiah said was true! They didn't think God had really given him the special message, and so they ignored him when he tried to do his special job!

Optional Lesson Strengthening: Prepare headphones or earphone in advance. Say to the kids, "I love these noise canceling headphones! I can rock out to my favourite music without hearing anything else. But if I'm not careful, I can miss an important phone call or even a knock on the door when I am wearing them. Want to try them?" (If you have a small group, consider letting each kid test them out. For large groups, select one or two children to attest to the headphones' effectiveness.)

Discuss the story. Isaiah's job was to listen to God and then tell the people about what he heard. But what if Isaiah wasn't listening to God's voice and rather listening to other things? He would not have heard about the Secret Rescue Plan! So, how can you and I cancel out extra noises so that we can hear God? By reading the Bible, talking to God and worshipping Him with all your heart.
