

Scripture reference: The Singer: The Sermon on the Mount

Story summary: Jesus instructs us to trust God, and reminds us that God faithfully clothes and provides for even the flowers of the field. Hopefully, the truth will emerge that as followers of Jesus, we truly can trust him no matter what, that we are his prized creation, and that God compassionately attends to all the details of our lives; down to our next meal.

Optional Lesson Strengthening: Say, God cares for the flowers and the birds and us. What else do you think that He cares for? Give them time to make suggestions. Have each child say one thing that they think that God takes care of. After each child says what God takes care of everyone will act like that animal or thing. For example, if someone says that God takes care of cats, all the kids will act like cats for about 30 seconds, then the teacher will move on to the next child. When the game is over say, God loves and cares for everything that he created. God loves everything that we just acted out and God loves you.

Further discussion: On the the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus also talks about being being the salt and light of the earth. Point out that Christians are also compared to light. Hide the torch under some cushions. Ask the child if they can see better now. When they say no, say that you will move the light. This time place the torch under a bowl. Ask if it lights up the room. Continue to move the light (or allow the child to) as you point out that the light works best when it is out for all to see. Explain that just like the light needs to be seen, Christians need to live so that all can see the light of Christ in them.
