

Scripture reference: The present.

Story summary: God asked Abraham to sacrifice his only son, whom he loved, but then God provided a ram instead. But later, God actually sacrificed someone He loved. Who was it? Yes, God sacrificed his only Son, Jesus.

Optional Lesson Strengthening: Have some volunteers line up in a horizontal line across the front of the group. This game is similar to Mother-May-I. Instead of taking turns all the children listen to your question and respond with, "Yes, I do". You then issue the command and they all may respond. In this game everyone will be a winner when they reach you. (Adjust the commands according to your room size, so that they can reach you by the time you've finished asking the questions.)

- Mother asks you to turn the TV off. Will you get up and do it without saying, "wait"? (You may take 3 baby steps forward)
- Teacher asks you to stop talking in class when she's talking. Will you stop talking? (You may take 4 little hops forward)
- Your sibling asks you not to play in his/her room. Will you stay out of the room room? (You may take 1 giant step forward)

Remind the boys and girls that often we have to obey even though we can't understand the reason for it. Only Jesus can help us do that. When someone asks you to do something and you feel like saying, "no" say a prayer for Jesus to help you.

Further discussion: Think about the thing you have that you treasure the most. Is it a toy? A picture? Is it your Mom or Dad? Now imagine having to give up that thing. Imagine seeing it destroyed. How does that make you feel? God knows how that feels. He gave up the thing most precious to him so that evil people could destroy it. What was it? His son. God was asking Abraham if he was willing to be like God and see his precious son destroyed. Are we like God? Are we willing to sacrifice like he has?
