SUNDAY FELLOWSHIP GROUP GUIDE

SCRIPTURE REFERENCE:

The friend of little children. Jesus and the children, from Matthew 18, 19; Mark 10; Luke 18.

STORY SUMMARY:

The disciples are arguing over who would be greatest and have the highest status. Jesus teaches His disciples that they need to receive the kingdom of God as a little child.

INTRODUCTION:

Last time we discovered that being in the kingdom of God is as wonderful as finding hidden treasure. The children in the story knew they did not have to do anything special for Jesus to love them. They trusted Jesus. We can trust Jesus just like they did.

OPTIONAL LESSON STRENGTHENING:

Say: "Let's play a game about trust. Ask the three volunteers to be the travellers. Blindfold them and position them close to a wall. Put the chair on the opposite side of the room and announce that it is "Home." Ask one person to stand beside each traveller as the guide. Ask everybody else to find a place to stand in the room with their arms and legs spread out. Explain that they are obstacles between the traveler and getting home. The obstacles should find a place to stand and then remain still. If an obstacle deliberately moves, then they are out. Say: The travellers need to get home without bumping into any of the obstacles or one another. The guides walk beside their blindfolded travellers and can call out any instructions they like to get the travellers home; e.g., "Take four steps forward, stop; take one step right, stop"; etc. If a traveler bumps into an obstacle or into another traveller, they have to go back to the wall and start again. Play the game for 2 minutes or until someone gets home. Ask the children to remove their blindfolds and ask them what it felt like to have to trust the guides. Say: "In order for you to get home, you had to trust and depend on your guides. If you'd tried to do it on your own, would not have made it. If you decided not to trust what your guides said, then you would not have made it. You had to trust. The children in today's story knew they did not have to do anything special for Jesus to love them. They trusted Jesus. We can trust Jesus just like they did.
